Executive Summary

The Lagos Community Advancement School Project (LCASP) is a bold escalation of the Street-To-Stardom Project under Afrovanguard. It is designed to tackle corruption, civic decay, and cultural erosion from their root; the grassroots.

Project Commencement Date: Monday, October 25th , 2025

Across Lagos, children face poor civic education, declining communal support, and weak cultural identity. If this continues, corruption will remain immortal and recycled from generation to generation. LCASP intervenes early, raising a generation of Lagos children equipped with civic responsibility, cultural consciousness, and leadership values.

Through schools, volunteers, and community hubs (CACENTREs), LCASP will mobilize 400 volunteers

Problem Statement

The Immortality of Corruption in Africa

Transparency International consistently ranks Nigeria among the world's most corrupt nations (2024 CPI: 145/180). Corruption thrives because interventions often focus on adults who are already fully corrupt entities, rather than children at their formative stage.

Two great mistakes persist in African societies:

1. Trying to correct corruption after it is fully formed. At that stage, behavior is hardwired, and social institutions are already compromised.

2. Believing parenting is an individual task. In truth, raising a child is a community responsibility just as African tradition once upheld.

If we fail to confront these root causes, we will keep meandering in the big ocean of corruption, drowning generation after generation.

LCASP

Why Grassroot

Scientific Backing:
UNICEF research shows that early childhood and adolescent interventions produce the highest returns in social outcomes (10x ROI compared to late adulthood reforms)
Neuropsychology confirms that moral and civic behaviors are best shaped between ages 6–17, when social values become long-term habits.

Cultural Backing:
Pre-colonial African societies practiced communal parenting through elders, neighbors, and relatives shaped children's values. This system was disrupted, leaving parents isolated and children exposed.

SDG Escalation:
By embedding civic responsibility and cultural values early, LCASP helps Lagos State accelerate its achievement of:
SDG 4: Access to quality civic and cultural education.
SDG 10: Leveling opportunity gaps across communities.
SDG 11: Building sustainable, cohesive communities.
SDG 16: Cultivating future leaders with justice, fairness, and integrity.
SDG 17: Engage in sustainable partnership

LCASP

Objectives of LCASP

1. Educate: Provide structured Leadership and Community Advancement training for Lagos secondary school students.
2. Mobilize: Raise and train 400 volunteers to mentor children and support communities.
3. Establish: Create Community Advancement Centres (CACENTREs) in Agege, Isolo, Egbeda, and Ayobo.
4. Prevent: Reduce juvenile delinquency and grassroots corruption through early intervention.
5. Unite: Promote collaboration between parents, teachers, and communities

Case Study — Alimosho Success Story

In 2023, Afrovanguard launched the Alimosho Summer School at Egbeda and Ikotun. By 2024, 200 children have enrolled in civic education, creative skills, and leadership training. Parents reported improved discipline, stronger values, and renewed cultural pride in their children.

This year 2025, we streched to 4 centers. And at one of the centres; Ayobo, parents insisted that the work should not end after the four-week program. They rallied together, requesting a permanent Community Advancement Centre (CACENTRE), just like the Egbeda model.

This organic demand from parents proves one fact: when communities unite, sustainability is inevitable.
